

Graduate Studies students visit Karnataka High Court

Students of Acharya Institute of Graduate Studies had a day of learning when they visited the Karnataka High Court. Students were able to be present for actual proceedings. They also visited the Government Printing press at Kumbalgot; they had the opportunity of hands on session on various printing procedures.

