About Program

Legacy Meet 2006 is a special alumni reunion organized by Acharya Institute of Technology to celebrate the journey and accomplishments of the Class of 2006. The programme provides an opportunity for alumni to reconnect with their alma mater, relive cherished memories, and strengthen lifelong friendships and professional networks. It also serves as a platform for alumni to share their experiences, inspire the next generation of students, and foster meaningful collaborations that contribute to the continued growth and success.

Objectives of the Program

- To reconnect the 2002–2006 Engineering alumni with their alma mater and strengthen alumni-institution relationships.
- To facilitate interaction between alumni and final-year students by sharing industry experiences, career guidance, and professional insights.
- To provide alumni with an opportunity to revisit the campus and witness the institution's academic and infrastructural growth.
- To promote networking and encourage long-term alumni engagement through mentoring, collaboration, and institutional support.
