

ACHARYA'S NR INSTITUTE OF PHYSIOTHERAPY

Mock Interview Competition For Students To Work At Corporate Hospitals

About the Program

- This competition aims to prepare physiotherapy interns for corporate hospital recruitment processes through structured mock interview training and assessment.
- To enhance communication skills, clinical reasoning, professional behavior, and confidence among interns.
- To provide exposure to HR interviews, technical interviews, OSCE-based practical evaluation, and panel discussions similar to corporate healthcare settings.
- To identify and improve placement readiness of students by offering expert feedback from clinicians and recruiters.
- To bridge the gap between academic learning and professional expectations in multidisciplinary healthcare environments.
